

Moore Family Tours Canada

Mr. and Mrs. Alan S. Moore and sons, David and Dick, 1741 Elm Ave., returned last week from a 7000 mile trip on which they toured Canada. They went up the coast to Victoria, where they visited a school friend of Mr. Moore, Dr. Harrison, whom he had not seen in 35 years. They were guests at Dr. Harrison's summer home at Burrard Inlet. The Moores toured the island visiting Sprout Lake. On the continent they drove through the Canadian Rockies to Banff and Lake Louise. In Regina, the local family visited with relatives and in Winnipeg they were guests of sisters of Mr. and Mrs. Moore. At Lake Betula, the Moore boys mastered water skiing. The Moore family left Torrance on July 29 and returned Sept. 7.

Nowka-Melvold Vows are Read at St. Catherine's

St. Catherine Labouré Catholic Church was the scene of the 2 o'clock wedding ceremony on Saturday Aug. 20 uniting Miss Diane Kay Nowka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Nowka, 1517 Prairie Ave. and Melvin Myles Melvold. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Melvold, 16911 Fonthill, Torrance.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white Chantilly lace fashioned with a basque waist detailed with a scalloped bateau neckline and long sleeves. Panels of the lace decorated the bouffant tulle skirt. A flat headpiece of pearls and sequins secured the fingertip illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. Her father escorted her to the altar.

Mrs. Joe Nowka and Miss Carolyn Marshall were the honor attendants. Mrs. Nowka was in blue chiffon and Miss Marshall in pink chiffon. Each carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Judy Nowka, Deanna Williamson and Pat Robinson. Their gowns were also of pink chiffon and pink carnations formed the bouquets.

Mrs. Robert W. Melvold was his brother's best man and the ushers were Dalvin Terry, David J. Melvold and Joe D. Nowka.

Mrs. C. E. Hamf, at the organ, played the wedding marches. The Rev. Raymond Tepe officiated at the marriage.

A reception for the 200 guests was held at the Hawthorne Woman's club. Mrs. Norine Melvold was in charge of the guest book.

After a Carmel honeymoon, the couple will be at home at 16516 Freeman Ave., Lawndale.

The bride is a senior at Leuzinger High school and will be graduated in February 1961.

Her husband was graduated from Serra High in 1956.
